

Museo Novecento

Welcome. The Museo Novecento in Florence, opened in 2014, houses a rich permanent collection of 20th century works, and is the venue for temporary exhibitions of internationally important modern and contemporary art.

WHERE

The museum is located in a historical building a few steps from the Santa Maria Novella railway station, making it easily accessible by public transport (tramway, train, bus) but also with your own means of transport, which you can leave in the nearby station car park.

TIMETABLES

The museum is open daily from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., except on Thursdays, when it is closed.

TICKETS

Tickets can be purchased online or at the ticket office on the day of the visit.

Numerous guided tours and activities for families with children are also offered daily. You can find them all at this link:

<https://musefirenze.it/musei/novecento/>

<https://www.museonovecento.it/educazione/>

USEFUL INFORMATION

Before entering the museum, you will be asked to leave backpacks, bulky bags and umbrellas at the free cloakroom. There is also a museum bookshop at the ticket office.

INCLUSIVE MUSEUM

Everyone is welcome in the museum. A number of multi-sensory stations are located along the itinerary to promote inclusive enjoyment, as well as QR codes for access to LIS audio and video content. You will find more details at this link:

<https://musefi.link/BI6pca> and www.museonovecento.it/museo

For special accessibility requirements you can write to us at museiaperti@musefirenze.it